A Fight Reported between General's Breck. inridge and Gillem, at Bull's Gap-Breckinridge's Force 10,000 Men-Gil-lem Reported Defeated with a Loss of 400 Prisoners-No Fears of the Invasion of Kentucky are Apprehended-The Military Fully Prepared to Meet any Advance of the Rebels into the State.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 19 .- Intelligence deemed reliable, but the accuracy of which cannot be positively determined, says that very recently the rebel General Breckinridge, with ten thousand men, attacked General Gillem near Bull's Gap, Tennessee, and after a desperate fight defeated Gillem, who lost four hundred prisoners. The number of killed and wounded is not stated.

No fears of the invasion of Kentucky, as consequent on this reverse, are apprehended. the military authorities being fully prepared to meet any advance of such a force into the

FROM HAGERSTOWN. [Correspondence of The Star |

HAGERSTOWN, Nov. 17 .- Editor Star The alarm here of Saturday and Sunday nights last (mentioned in my letter to you of Monday) appears not to have been entirely groundless, but was occasioned by the crossing of the river of some twenty-five or thirty of Mosby's scoutswho crossed in a body, but who separated after getting en this side. Some of them took the Williamsport and Greencastle turnpike, (four miles west of this town,) and passed on to Pennsylvania, where seven of them were cap-tured in Franklin county. There are still a number of these scouts on this side of the river, and to them can be attributed the work of cutting the telegraph wire between here and Frederick. The timid ones fear that if Mosby, who is operating along the line of the Baltimore and Onio railroad, should make a dash across the river, he will burn Hagerstown, as he has threatened to do it; and prisoners who have fell into our hands recently say that it is the intention of the rebels to do so in retaliation for the destruction of property in the Valley. This fear on the part of some of our citizens has been greatly increased by an attempt, several nights ago. to fire the court-house, which is situated in the very heart of the town. It was discovered in time, however, to prevent a serious Arms have been furnished our citizens, and anies are forming in the county for home protection. It appears to be the determination of our Union citizens to defend themselves from guerrilla depredations, and a number of them have volunteered as scouts. Scouting parties are out day and night. The latest news received here from across the river, is to the effect that Early is again on the retreat up the Valley, having broken camp at Fisher's Hill on Sunday. Sheridan has sent a pursuing force after the rebels.

Mosby has attacked our troops at different points between Winchester and Harper's Ferry the past few days, and has gobbled up some prisoners, but his whereabouts at the present time is not definitely known here. The retreat of Early will doubtless cause Mesby to seek another field of operations.

ABOUT SHERMAN. '[Despatch to the Chicago Tribune.]

ST. Louis, Nov. 15 .- A gentleman from Sherman's headquarters at Kingston, Ga., says that Gen. Sherman is by this time some dis-tance on the war path. His army consists of the 14th corps, Gen. Jeff. C. Davis; 10th corps, Gen. Osterhaus; 17th corps. Gen. Blair; 20th corps, Gen. Slocum.

These, with 15,000 under Kilpatrick and a brigade of artillery, make a total force of about 50,000 men, splendidly equipped and supplied with every appliance of war. All the public buildings, depots, manufactories, &c., in Atlanta are rendered worthless, and the railroads north and south of the city, and all surrounding defensive works, destroyed. There is to be no turning back, and nothing left behind of value to the enemy.

The Springfield Republican says it has a statement in a private letter from an officer in Sherman's army, written while he was in Northern Georgia, saying that Sherman was preparing for a quick compaign to the Gulf. The officer was in a position to know.

A brother of the editor of the Davenport (Iowa) Gazette, who is now doing his duty as a private in the 2d Minnesota infantry, thus writes from Kingston, Georgia, under date of November 4:

To-day we received official notice that this day's mail would be the last we could send for at least forty days, and that we could not receive any for the same length of time. To Savanneh, is the cry, and we are in the best of spirits over the order. We want to give it to them while Hood is North, though in truth we do not fear him; should he ever fight us it would end him. We learn that we can go light from Atlanta, each man carrying a pair of extra shoes, and perhaps a hundred rounds of cartridges. This, we think, is going rather beavy, but anything to win and close up this war.

A St. Louis dispatch of the 14th says: Air officer of Sherman's staff is here, who states that he has orders, when his leave expires, to join Sherman, by way of the Atlantic coast, at Savannah. He expects Sherman to march entirely across Georgia to that place.

The Louisville Journal of the 15th inst. says : "Gen. Thomas's command has concentrated at Fulaski, Giles county, Tenn., which is a fine point for observation. The 4th and 23d army corps, and heavy details from other corps, give the gallant Thomas a most imposing army. Gen. Stanley is temporarily in command of the Department of the Cumberland. Gen. Howard, with the Army of the Tennessee, Slocum with the 20th corps, and headquarters' of Gen. Sherman, have folded their tents like Arabs and stlently stole away, and for the next fortnight will be carving history with their swords "

The Springfield (Mass.) Republican calls attent on to the fact that Captain Collins, of the Wachusett, who seized the Florida, incurred the censure of the Government in 1862, for seizing the British schooner Mont Blanc, and taking her into Key West. At the time of seizure, the schooner was at anchor at Sand Cay, Baham Banks, only one mile from shore.

A woman in Franklin county, Mo., raised half an acre of tobacco this year, doing all the work of cultivation herself and clearing $800 by it.

LATEST SOUTHERN NEWS.

Rebel Reports from East Tennessee-Gen. Breckinridge Claims & Victory-Capture of Prisoners, Colors and Artillery—Rebel Reports of Sherman—He is Said to be Moving on Selma, Ala.-Arrival of a Federal Fleet in Mobile Bay-Proceed-ings of the Rebel Congress-Williamson R. W. Cobb Declared Disloyal. We have received the Richmond Whig of the 16th, from which we extract the following:

Glerious News from East Tennessee. Breckinridge is not only intellectually great but he is as brave as the bravest, and seems to have learned the art of war by intuition. Like Forrest, he is ever able to accomplish what others deem impossible. In East Tennessee he has at a single blow swept away the prestige of what the Yankees claim as a great victory. The following dispatch, received at the War Department last night, speaks for itself, and hardly needed the brief preface we

HEADQUARTERS ARMY NORTHERN VIR-GINIA. Nov. 15 .- Hon. James A. Seddon, Secretary of War:-Gen. Breckinridge reports that on the night of the 13th he turned Bull's Gap, when the enemy attempted to retreat. About one o'clock on the 14th, with Vaughn's and Duke's commands, he struck their column and routed it. Several hundred prisoners, ten stand of colors, six pieces of artillery, with caissons and horses complete, fifty wagons, loaded, with teams, ambulances with medical supplies, &c., were captured. R. E. LEE. From the Army of Tennessee.

General Hood is in motion, and his destination is thought to be East Tennessee. On the other hand, we have reason to believe, from the best information which has reached us, that Sherman designs to evacuate Atlanta entirely. The larger portion of his force, it is reported. is already moving towards Selma. Ala. and, if this be true, Mobile must be his destination. Apropos to this conjecture, we learn that an immense fleet of transports, laden with stores, has arrived in Mobile Bay, which looks as if a movement is contemplated at an early day in that quarter. We have, upon the above hypothesis, the most singular feature of the war-that is, of two large armies passing each other by a sort of flank movement and moving in an opposite direction. Sherman may be a shrewd banker, a stubborn fighter, and a prospective candidate for Presidential honors; but we venture the prediction that he has been woefully outgeneraled this time. We shall soon see. The situation is certainly increasing in interest.

Expulsion of W. R. W. Cobb. We find the following in Tuesday's proceed ings of the rebel Congress: WILLIAMSON R. W COBB DECLARED DISLOYAL Mr. Clinton, (Ala.,) from the special committee appointed to investigate the charge of disloyalty against Williamson R. W. Cobb, member of Congress from Alabama, made a report, accompanied by the testimony of sundry witnesses, who prove that the accused re-mained within the Yankee lines, of his own accord, when he could easily have left had he so desired; that his conduct and conversation since he has been among them clearly shows that he is hostile to the Confederate cause; and that the committee recommend that his seat be declared vacant, and the Governor of the State of Alabama be informed of the action of the House

The subject was laid over to give the members an opportunity to examine the testimony.

NAVY YARD AFFAIRS-COLLISION ON THE POTOMAC. Yesterday afternoon the gunboat Stepping Stones, formerly of the Potomac Flotilla, but which has for over two years past been attached to the North Atlantic Squadron, doing duty in the Chesapeake and tributaries arrived

The Don, flagship of the Potomac flotilla, Commander Parker, arrived last night from St. Inigoes. She reports that the six survivors of the ill-fated Tulip, who are in the hospital at Point Lookout, are doing well and it is probable they will recover. There are also two others belonging to the ill-fated steamer, Master's Mate Davis, now on the Wyandank, and Ensign Wagstaff, now on the Commodore Read. Now and then pieces of the wreck and hats, &c., belonging to the officers and men of the Tulip are seen floating on the river, which causes the eye to become moistened with a tear of regret for the untimely loss of the brave officers and men of the boat.

On Wednesday night last, a collision occurred a mile from Point Lookout, the Dragon running into the Freeborn, (both of the Potomac flotilla) and knocking off the nose and arm of the latter, causing her to leak badly, three feet making in her hold in about seven minutes. By the use of the pumps she was, however, kept afloat until she arrived at the station at St. Inigoes, where she was beached. She will be sent here probably for repairs, her damages being extensive.

DESTRUCTION OF A RUBEL FISHERY. The Navy Department has received a communication from Lieut. John Shewell, commanding the United States steamer Stars and Stripes, dated on board that vessel, off St. Marks, Fla., Oct. 19th, in which he says : "Having heard of the existence of a valuable and extensive government fishery on Marsh Island, on the north side of the Oclockonee river, I despatched an expedition last nightconsisting of the first and second cutters of this vessel, with armed crews, the whole under the command of Acting Master George E. Hill-to destroy it, and do such other injury to the enemy as the circumstances and opportunities might permit.

"The expedition returned at 9 o'clock this morning, Mr. Hill having landed at daybreak with 30 men, fully accomplishing the object for which it was sent. All the permanent fixtures of the establishment, consisting of the fish and dwelling houses, and the kettles of the salt works attached to the fishery, were entirely destroyed; a large and valuable seine and two fishing boats captured, together with 16 Confederate soldiers, (two of them Sergeants) detached for the purpose of operating and guarding the works."

This was regarded as one of the most important fisheries on the coast, and furnished large supplies not only to the interior districts of this State, but also to the commissariat of the rebel army.

RELIEVED.

Major Robert M. Littler, Assistant Provost Marshal of the Military District of Washington, with headquarters at Georgetown, has been relieved by Captain Judson M. Cross. of the Veteran Reserve Corps, and ordered to Augusta, Me., there to assume the duties of Assistant Provost Marshal General of the State of Maine. Major Littler leaves the city this afternoon for Augusta, and carries with him the best wishes of his many friends in this city and Georgetown.

Captain Cross (Major Littler's successor as Assistant Provost Marshal of this military district) has had charge of the commitment desk in Colonel Ingraham's office for several months past, and is thoroughly acquainted with the duties of his new position. As Captain Cross is most abable in his deportment and prompt and faithful in the dispatch of business, a bet ter appointment could not have been made.

CHARGE OF CRUEL PUNISHMENT .- Yesterday afternoon, Miss Elizabeth Duvall, a teacher in a male primary school of the 2d District, was before Justice Johnson to answer the complaint of Mr. Frederick Depro, that she had inflicted cruel punishment on the person of his son, a boy of six years. The alleged whipping is charged to have been committed on Wednesday last and was not denied by Miss Duvall, who stated that the punishment was inflicted for using profane language in the school-room. The boy was before the Justice, and an examination was made, which showed that the boy had been pretty smartly handled. It was remarked by some in the office that the marks would not have been visible had not the boy on the day in question had on thin pantaloons. The blows were inflicted with a uler, and the parts visited were black and

A number of trustees were present, and the manual of the schools was referred to, by which it appeared that corporal punishment is authorized to be used in the schools. The Justice decided that the teacher in the school-room had the right to inflict corporal punishment, but in this case he deemed the punishment excessive. If the boy deserved such severe punishment, and was notoriously a bad boy, it would have been better for her to have conferred with the parents or have reported the scholar to the trustees for dismissal. He held her to bail to keep the peace.
